“But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you...”

— Acts 1:8 (KJV)

TAPPING INTO HOLY GHOST POWER

What does a Spirit-filled “power injection” look like in 2025? For me, it isn’t always spectacular or dramatic—it’s daily grace. It’s the unseen strength to continue doing what the Lord has given me to do.

When I stand to preach, when I sit to write, when I bend my knees to pray, I find the Holy Ghost giving me what I could never produce myself: conviction when my flesh is weak, clarity when my thoughts are clouded, boldness when I’m tempted to retreat.

This is exactly what Jesus promised. Power to be His witness. Power to keep going when the weight feels too heavy. Power to lift up the name of Christ when the world is shouting other names.

Friend, the Spirit is still pouring out holy power today. Not for show, but for service. Not for personal glory, but for gospel witness. When you pause and lean on Him, He will give you strength just when you need it. I know—because He does it for me every day.

YOUTUBE IS A VERB. WHO KNEW?

What kind of fool would build up a collection of over 300 videos for ministry over five years... and then leave it all to start a new channel? I would. I did!

For half a decade I worked hard creating, posting, preparing, and producing videos: songs the Lord gave me, devotionals I wrote, even full book studies from Scripture. Yet I realized along the way that YouTube has its own language, its own “algorithm,” and I wasn’t speaking it very well.

So I started fresh. Not to erase the past, but to sharpen the focus. The new channel is simple: just me, the Scriptures, and my viewers. Intimate. Real. Pastor-to-flock.

And yes, I now say it this way: I YouTube. A verb! But I YouTube with a bit more wisdom, and with a heart set on connection rather than numbers. The early signs are encouraging—and I believe the Lord is breathing on this new chapter.

WALKING WITH JESUS CLOSER

I've been experimenting with what it looks like to include Jesus in every single moment of my day. It's not easy! But it's transformative.

When I wake, I whisper, "Good morning, Lord." When I'm driving, I invite Him into the quiet. When I'm in conversation, I ask silently for His wisdom. Even in the most ordinary routines, I'm learning to acknowledge His presence.

The Bible says:

"In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

— Proverbs 3:6 (KJV)

It takes practice, but when we include Jesus moment by moment, we discover He is closer than we realized. The Shepherd really does walk with His sheep. And in a noisy, divided world, His nearness is our peace.

Try it for a day: keep company with Jesus. You may find that the most common minutes become holy ground.

TIME TO RETURN TO PUBLIC SPEAKING... HELP LORD!

After extended time focusing on online ministry, the Lord is stirring me again to go out and preach face-to-face. With fear and trembling, but with faith, I am saying yes.

I am now available for church services, events, small groups, or spiritual gatherings through Bible Teaching Corner Live. When I come, I bring:

- A fresh Word in season
- Clear Bible teaching
- A shepherd's heart with a preacher's fire
- Encouragement to strengthen your walk and witness

BLESSINGS IN CHRIST

Thank you for reading this third edition of our TRM 313 newsletter. Whether you've been with me from the beginning or you're new here—remember this: God is alive, and He is working right where you are.

“But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.”

— 2 Peter 3:18 (KJV)
